

Case study Nitra 2014

“Ex post evaluation of Leader approach Delivery”

Target group

- Students of the IMRD

Objectives

To learn about:

- implementation of the EU Leader approach in the Slovak Republic
- the EU instruments to support Community-led local development in 2014-2020
- monitoring and evaluation of the EU rural development interventions financed out of EAFRD
- ex post evaluation of local development strategies in Leader approach
- techniques for assessment of the added value of Leader method and their seven principles

To build up skills:

- in the practical application of evaluation tools
- in the participatory research

Content of the case study

(1)

The case study will contain:

- theoretical lessons – general orientation in Slovakia, macroeconomic situation,
- the EU Rural Development Policies of 2007-2013 and 2014-2020,
- the Common Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of Rural Development Programs,
- the EU Leader Axis, the state of art of the Leader Axis in Slovakia and in particular in Nitra self- governing Region as example of the regional best practice in the field

Content of the case study

(2)

- training – the evaluation tools and techniques used for the ex post evaluation of local development strategies and implementation of Leader methods,
- The desk research focused on three cases – documents of integrated local development strategies of Leader local action groups.

Content of the case study

(3)

The subject of the desk research is:

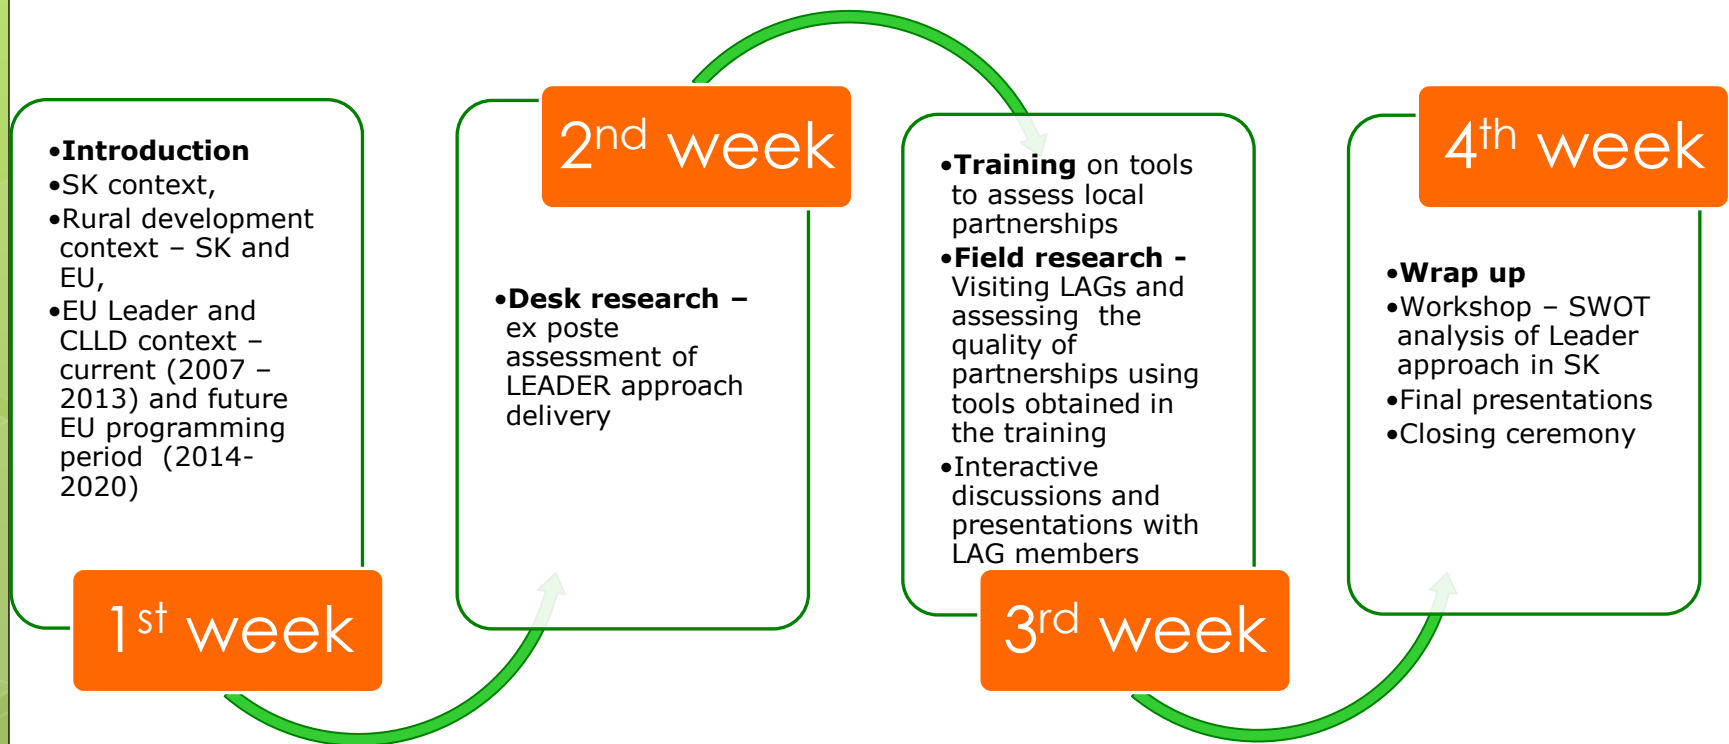

- analysis of territorial SWOT,
- problem analysis,
- Guidelines for implementation of LEADER axis

Content of the case study

(4)

- Practical field survey in local action groups – focused on the assessment of seven principles of Leader approach and application of Leader method.
- Organising and conducting presentation in front of representatives of particular local action groups on findings, conclusions and recommendations
- Developing final report
- Developing the SWOT analysis on the Leader Axis in Slovakia based upon experiences gained in local action groups territories and received information

What will be the teaching dynamism?

See you in Nitra 😊

<http://www.fesrr.uniag.sk/en/>